PROFILE

I am a Final year student , pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, with a focus on Full-stack development and DevOps, at Comsats Islamabad. Throughout my academic journey, I have gained a solid foundation in front-end and back-end web technologies and have open-sourced projects on GitHub. I have also acquired practical experience in web development through various personal projects and internships opportunities. Currently I am working on DevOps. I have containerized a few applications using docker and uploaded on Dockerhub and automated workflows using Jenkins. I am looking for opportunities to contribute in real world industry projects.
